Allocator Challenge - Delivering Alpha: Our Best Strategy Ideas Right Now

A panel discussion with chief investment officers on their best investment ideas.

We're not talking about stock picks or funds but specific and innovative strategies: litigation financing, Asian private lending, or a new private asset class, you name it. A live polling will follow with the audience voting on their favorite idea. The challenge will conclude with a donation by Institutional Investor to the winner's charity of choice.

Moderator:

Michael Rosen, Chief Investment Officer, Angeles Investment Advisors

Panelists:

Kelsey Deshler, Chief Investment Officer, Carleton College

Mark Baumgartner, Chief Investment Officer, Carnegie Corporation of New York

Karl Scheer, Chief Investment Officer, University of Cincinnati
