

September 2025: GLOBAL MARKET INDEX PERFORMANCE

Global equity and bond returns delivered positive results in September. The S&P 500 returned 3.6%, the MSCI ACWI IMI increased 3.4%, and developed non-U.S. equities (MSCI EAFE) increased 1.9%. In the U.S., value stocks underperformed growth, while large cap outperformed small cap. The Bloomberg Aggregate Bond Index returned 1.1% and the U.S. High Yield returned 0.8% for the month. U.S. CPI rose modestly, bringing the year-over-year inflation to 2.9% as of August 2025.

With trade tensions subsiding, the Federal Reserve's recent rate cut, and confidence over AI related stocks booming, the third quarter of 2025 ended bullish, despite concerns over a government shutdown. Inflation still continues to remain higher than the Federal Reserve's 2% target, which will factor into future rate cuts. The US dollar mildly strengthened but YOY is down ~4%.
